

Former Optometry Residents:

If you have completed an accredited residency with emphasis on Medical Optometry and practice in a health care group or facility, you may be eligible for national certification in the specialty of Medical Optometry.

Details on eligibility criteria for certification by The American Board of Certification in Medical Optometry may be found at our Web site below, while questions may be directed to info@abcmo.org

For more information visit:

www.abcmo.org

